Sub: Report on National Voters' Day Celebration on 25-01-21.

Sir,

As given instructions by Deputy Commissioner/District Election Officer to celebrate the National Voters' Day on 25-01-21, the Department of Political Science, Karimganj College has organized the event with the student fraternity to create awareness among them so that the quality of Indian Democracy is being enhanced with their presence in the electoral system. There was a speech delivered by the President (Principal of the College) of the event and Head of the Department has explained the significance of the day to the students. Some of the faculties from the said department as well as from other departments have also shared their views in this occasion. The students have taken oath in Bengali version and have also participated in the quiz competition arranged by the department. The photos are attached herewith.

Thanking You,
